IS DESIGNATED AS COMPANY C, 151ST

Local Infantry Company of Indiana
National Guard to be Sworn
Into Service Wednesday

TO DRILL AS USUAL TONIGHT

Shelbyville, Rushville, Greensburg
and Indianapolis Company to Form First Battalion

The National Guard company which has recently been organized here, has been designated as Company C of the 151st Indiana Infantry regiment, according to information which has been received by Will
B. Brann, captain.

The company will be sworn into the service Wednesday evening at the Wade Sherman building in South Perkins street and will become a full fledged militia company at that time.

The drill which had been previously announced for tonight at the Sherman building, will be held as arranged, regardless of the fact that the company will again assemble the following night to be sworn in.

Some officer of the Indiana National guard, from the office of the state adjutant general, Harry B.
Smith, will come here to swear in the local company. It is not known by the local officers who the officer will be.

One company of infantry from Shelbyville, one from Greensburg, the local company and a machine gun company of Indianapolis will form the first battalion of the 151st infantry, according to information received here.

The 151st Infantry will be commanded by Colonel D. Wray DePree of Shelbyville, who is well known here, and who has been influential in the organization of new units of the Indiana National Guard.

Company C has fifty enlisted men and three officers, which entitles it to federal recognition. It is expected that such recognition will soon be forthcoming, as application has been made to the war department at Washington.

The local company has no permanent headquarters, but it is believed that some building will be rented by the state authorities to be used as an armory shortly after the company is sworn into the service.
The preliminary inspection of local sites has already been made by a representative of the adjutant general, on whose report and recommendations a selection of an armory will be made. Several buildings are reported under consideration.

RUSH POST 150 GETS BEHIND THE CARNIVAL

American Legion Signs New Contract With Barkoot Company
Opening Monday Night

WILL OPERATE STAND THERE

Arrangements were completed
Monday evening for the Barkoot Carnival company to appear under the auspices of Rush post No. 150 of the American Legion. The Legion will receive a fixed amount for endorsing the enterprise and will also have permission to operate a stand free of charge at the carnival in a tent provided by the company.

The Legion will use its share of the proceeds to apply to a fund which is being accumulated to outfit their club rooms over the Ida
Dixon millinery store.

The carnival company first made arrangements to come here under the auspices of the Legion, but would not live up to the contract, according to members of the Legion. The ex-service men's organization then withdrew all support from the enterprise, but negotiations were started again Monday which resulted in a new contract being signed.

The carnival opened on the South Main street grounds Monday, evening and was reported to have had very liberal patronage. They have three riding devices, twelve shows and several concessions.

Pie In Danger Of Extinction

Architects of Great American Dessert, in Convention Assembled, Decide Activities of Short Change Counters and Mince Meat Moonshiners Must be Curbed.

(By United Press)
Chicago, Sept. 20.—Pie—the great American dessert—must be reformed or it will meet the fate of the Dodo.
The activities of short change counters and mince meat moonshiners must be curbed.

This is the word that has gone forth from the pie architects of the country who were here today attending the convention of the American Institute of Bakers.

Out of the convention will come a uniform standardized pie which will defy the cake-eating opposition and which will not cause indigestion.

Dr. H. E. Barnard, Minneapolis, outlined the nature of the great work. He told of the advantages of a definite number of fork marks on the milled edge of pastry, how thick the crust and how thick the "makin's" should be to be digestible.

"Pie has come to mean all sorts of things," said the doctor. "When we get through you will be able to order pie and get pie—not a tart or a mountain of dough."

FURTHER SHORTAGES IN BANKER'S BOOKS

Discovered Adolph Schaerer of Tell
City Also Took About $9,000
In Currency

SEEN IN SAN FRANCISCO

(By United Press)
Tell City, Ind., Sept. 20.—Further shortages, amounting to about $11,- 000 today were charged to Adolph Schaerer, missing cashier of the Citizens National Bank here who left Tell City Sept. 3, taking with him it is alleged, about $21,000 in Liberty bonds belonging to the bank.
Between $8,000 and $9,000 in currency is now missing from the bank and a shortage of about $1,100 has been discovered on the books of the building loan fund and savings association, of which Schaerer was treasurer.

The missing money was old currency which had been prepared for shipment to the treasury for new money. This was never received at the treasury department.

Schaerer before leaving, sought to provide for his mother's future. One hundred five-dollar bills were found between the covers of his mother's bed. She returned the money to the bank.

Schaerer has been seen in Los Angeles, California but has disappeared. It is believed by detectives of the American Surety Co., that he has gone to Mexico. In San Francisco, he was met by two friends from Tell City who invited him to

CONFERENCE IS EXPECTED

London, Sept. 20.—The pendulum of interest in the tense Irish situation has swung back to Gairloch, Scotland whence a short, but proprietary reply from Lloyd George to Eamonn De Valera was momentarily expected today.

Yesterday's note from the Sinn Fein leader, saying that he would confirm the Irish acceptance of the premier's invitation to a conference if "surrender" of Irish principles were not demanded was considered to have finally paved the way for a meeting. Lloyd George, it was believed, had only to reiterate that the conference would be "free on both sides and without prejudice" to make the proposed conference immediately possible.

American, piloting the balloon "Aero Club of America," in the Gordon Bennet cup race, landed today at Chardigan, Wales. Upson's flight is believed to be the longest of any of the 14 contestants and possibly he would be named the winner of the loonist have not yet been heard from.

RAIL LABOR BOARD APPROVES SCHEME

Collective Bargaining by Railroad Unions is Upheld in Pennsylvania Case Decision

WANTED TO DEAL DIRECTLY

Railroad is Denied Petition and is Likewise Handed Sharp Rebuke
by the Board

(By United Press)

Chicago, Sept. 20.—Collective bargaining by labor unions with railroads had been approved by the United States railroad labor board today.

In a decision handed down by the board on a petition filed by the Pennsylvania system, it was declared the railroad must deal with labor unions as organization.

The Pennsylvania, in its petition,
"insisted" that it be granted the right to deal directly with its employees instead of with outside labor representatives.

The road was handed a sharp rebuke by the board which charged that a "campaign of mis-statements had been waged" against the judicial body.

In labor circles, the decision was viewed as a partial victory for organized labor and as a blow against the "open shop".

If the Pennsylvania had been upheld in its contention, union representatives said, it would have meant that unions in the shop of that company, would have had no status whatsoever.

The board declared that organized labor represented the majority of railroad employees and cited the example that very few cases had been brought before the body by unorganized employees.

The case of the Pennsylvania is not entirely closed, however. The board in its ruling granted the road a hearing, set for Sept. 26 on the following points:

The question as to what employees, if any not in active service of the carrier, such as men laid off or on leave of absence shall be allowed to vote in the selection of representatives.

The question of how to determine the representative capacity of the spokesmen of the unions.

VACATIONISTS ARE GIVEN THEIR INNING

Rotary Club Hears From Members Who Have Been Away During Summer at Meeting Today

FAVORS CHANGE IN BY-LAWS

The Rushville Rotary club, at its regular meeting at the Social Club at noon today, heard from members who have been on vacations and also listened to short talks on Rotary subjects.

The club unanimously approved changes made in the constitution and by-laws of the International Association of Rotary clubs at the annual international convention at Edinburgh, Scotland, last June.

It was announced that the president and secretary of the local club would attend a conference of the presidents and secretaries of Indiana Rotary clubs at the Claypool hotel in Indianapolis Thursday. At this meeting the time and place for the annual conference of Indiana Rotary clubs will be selected.

Dr. Vernal Casady, former Rushville boy who has been preparing to practice medicine, was a guest of the club and spoke briefly.

Gale Foley of St. Petersburg Florida, formerly of Rushville, was also a guest. He is a member of the St. Petersburg Rotary club.

The club also discussed plans for the next ball game with the Kivan-is club, which will be held next Tuesday.

WILL OPEN THE CONFERENCE

President Harding to Speak on Unemployment Situation

(By United Press)

Washington, Sept. 20.—President
Harding will open the unemployment conference here next Monday with an address or message outlining the views of the administration as to how work can be provided for the millions now jobless, it was learned at the White House today.

Following the announcement by Secretary of Commerce Hoover of the names of the thirty-eight delegates, final preparations for the conference were to be made at the cabinet meeting today. Every effort will be made to relieve the unemployment situation before winter, Secretary of Commerce Hoover stated.

SEN. BORAH TO LEAD TREATY OPPOSITION

Decides He Can Not Vote to Ratify
Because It Ties United States
Up With Versailles Pact

IT INVOLVES INTERFERENCE

Washington, Sept. 20.—President Harding will submit to the senate for ratification the new peace treaty between the United States, Germany, Austria and Hungary it was stated on high authority at the White House today. No special message will go with the treaty except a formal message of transmission.

Washington, Sept. 20.—Senator
William E. Borah will lead Republican opposition in the senate to the Harding-Hughes peace treaty with Germany.

After long deliberation, Borah has made up his mind that he cannot vote to ratify the treaty, because in his opinion it ties the United States into the Versailles treaty.

Borah is expected to start his fight shortly after President Harding sends the new treaty to the Senate which probably will be within a few days.

If the United States exercises in the slightest degree the rights it thus claims, it must take part in administering and enforcing the reparations settlement, Borah holds.
To do this it must officially assume membership on the reparations commission. This Borah feels means that the United States will take membership in a super government which is imposing its mandates upon Germany.

The economic clauses involve similar interference, if the new treaty is to be carried out, Borah believes. Inevitably he holds the United States will be called on to sanction settlements and decisions of doubtful justice.

MEET UNDER DIFFERENT CONDITIONS TONIGHT

Roscoe Arbuckle's Guests Will Tell
Their Story of Labor Day Party to Grand Jury Tonight

NO LIQUOR THERE, ACTOR SAYS

Roscoe Arbuckle's party, which preceded the death of Virginia Rappe, will meet together again tonight to discuss Roscoe's liquor.

Tonight's "get together" will be in the room of the federal grand jury with Robert McCormick, special assistant United States district attorney, as host.

McCormick today announced that he had determined to request all before the federal grand jury in order to perpetuate their testimonies.

Arbuckle thus far says there was no liquor and stands pat on his right not to talk.

STINGING SLAP TO RADICALISM

Pres. John L. Lewis Calls on United Mine Workers to Rebuke Leaders Who Violated Laws

HE URGES UNITY OF ACTION

Delegates Stand Behind Pres. Lewis in Declaration That Wage Reductions Will be Contested

Indianapolis, Sept. 20.—President
John L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers today administered a stinging slap to radicalism within the ranks of organized labor in his keynote address to the miners convention. He struck particularly at the "left wing" of his organization.

Lewis called upon the convention to rebuke Alexander Howat, Frank Farrington and Robert H. Harlin, district leaders of Kansas, Illinois and Washington respectively for their official acts which he said violated the union laws.

Other recommendations made to the convention by Lewis were:

Absolute unity of action in fighting the wage reductions which the mine operators propose to force at their wage scale conference next March.

Relinquishment of the recent demands for nationalization of the mines.

Vigorous prosecution of the fight for unionization of the West Virginia mine war area.

Institution of legal proceedings to test the constitutionality of the Kansas industrial court law.

"While other powerful trade union organizations have been compelled to accommodate themselves to the pressure of economic conditions our union has unflinchingly held its lines of battle and our forces are everywhere intact," Lewis said. "We have refused to retreat and despite the drum fire of adverse criticism levelled at our union, no wage reductions have been taken and it is our high purpose to continue this policy."

The union chief counselled the 2,500 delegates to carry out their contracts with the operators in every detail but in driving his point for a determined stand against the wage cut, he pointed out the unemployment in the coal industry and said it is "unreasonable to believe that to further reduce their wages would be an action predicated upon equity or wise policy." This bore out the general belief that the miners will

SIX ACTIVE CASES ARE DISCOVERED AT CLINIC

Fourteen Persons Are Examined For Tuberculosis By Dr. James H.
Stygall Monday

NEEDED FOUR TIMES A YEAR

Out of fourteen persons examined at the tuberculosis clinic here Monday, which was held under the auspices of the Woman's Council of Rushville, six active cases of tuberculosis were found, it was announced today.

The clinic was conducted by Dr.
James H. Stygall, new director of the state clinical service, who was in charge at the first clinic held here last spring. The clinics which have been held in thirty-five counties in the last five months are made possible by the sale of Red Cross Seals during the holiday season under the auspices of the Indiana Tuberculosis association.

Dr. Stygall expressed the opinion
Monday that there should be a minimum of four clinics a year in Rushville, because there was a need for them here and for the additional reason that a ready response has always been found in Rush county to such an appeal. The Woman's Council, however, is not in a position to support that number each year unless more funds are forthcoming for the purpose.

Dr. Stygall had the assistance of Miss Fort, Rushville visiting nurse, and three nurses from the Dr. Sexton hospital.

strike rather than submit to the reductions at the expiration of the wage contract next March.

Lewis called attention of the convention to the refusal of Frank Farrington and other Illinois union officials to comply with the decision of the executive board requiring them to give an itemized accounting of $27,000 which was spent during a "wildcat" strike in Illinois two years ago.

Regarding the union situation in Kansas, he said Alexander Howat has continually refused to obey orders of the international union and that he had failed to call off two outlaw strikes in his district after the executive board has directed him to do so.

In his report on the recent strike in Alabama Lewis struck at Harlin and Farrington with the assertion that they spread malicious propaganda among the striking miners in an effort to injure the union by declaring Lewis was paying organizers with union funds for conducting campaign work in behalf of the present administration.

Unionization of the West Virginia "mine war" counties developed today into the central question of the convention.

International union officers realized that this movement is of first importance in their determined fight against the wage reduction proposed by the mine operators.

Mingo, McDowell, Logan and Mercer counties—the scene of the civil strife—were said to be the battle ground upon which the operators and the union will fight out the entire question of labor organization.

During the nation-wide coal strike in November, 1919, the mines in those four counties operated by non-union men produced enough coal to materially aid the country in the fuel crisis through which it was passing. These mines are among the most productive in West Virginia and both the miners and operators appreciate their importance.

Each side is aware that as long as these mines rich in coal deposits, produce sufficient fuel, to operate the nation's basic industries, a strike of miners would not be as effective

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

New York, Sept. 20—Oils were heavy during the early trading on the New York Stock Exchange today and Mexican Petroleum led the slump. This stock made an early low at 109 3/4 being off just ten points from its high of the last two weeks.

Asphalt sold down to 48 1/2. Steel common was again up during early trading, but easy yesterday, it failed to influence the list and independent steels were fractionally lower. Steel common was up 1/2 at 78 3/4. Baldwin Locomotive's first sale today was 86 up 1/2, but this gain was quickly lost.

American International made an early low below 30. Rails were fairly steady during the first hour and D. L. & W. held up around 107. Southern Pacific gained a fraction at the opening.

Prices were irregular at the opening of the New York Stock Exchange today. Opening prices included:

as if all the coal fields in the country were tied up.

The matter that brought the West Virginia situation to the front was the repeated declaration of President John L. Lewis that the union will fight with all its strength against the wage reduction which the operators say they will put into effect at the expiration of their wage contract next March. A canvass of the 2,500 miners attending the convention from all coal regions showed that Lewis' position most probably will be endorsed by the meeting.

The convention itself will not deal directly with the wage question, but it is likely to adopt instructions for the scale committee which meets the operators in March. The matter then would be entrusted to the scale committee and another convention likely would be called in February to formulate definite demands or to accept the report of the committee.

Lewis' assertion that the full strength of the union will be thrown behind the fight against wage cuts was taken to mean that a coal strike would be called to protect the miners' pay envelopes.

The union chief was expected to open his fight against the "left wing" of the organization when he submits his report to the meeting late today. He has taken a decided stand against the activities of Alex Howat, Kansas district leader, and President Frank Farrington of the Illinois district whom he terms radicals.

Governor Warren T. McCray and Mayor Charles W. Jewett welcomed the miners as the meeting opened in Tomlinson hall.

CALIFORNIA OIL FIELDS STRIKE SCENE

Armed Strikers Patrol District and Refuse to Allow Outside Workers To Enter

THEIR DEMANDS REFUSED

(By United Press)

Bakersfield, Calif., Sept. 20.—Armed strikers who have been sworn in as special deputy sheriffs and constables today picketed the great oil fields in this district.

The pickets formed a "law and order" committee and with the apparent consent of the civil authorities who are in sympathy with them, they blocked all roads leading to the fields.

The oil fields in this district are among the richest, covering several hundred square miles and containing hundreds of the most valuable producing oil wells in the country.

The strikers declare they will not permit any outside workers to enter the oil district until the employers meet their demands.

Eight thousand men are on strike, of whom 450 are members of the Law and Order committee and about eight thousand are still at work for companies not affected by the strike.

Strike sentries halt all automobiles at the dead line on the edge of the oil fields and refuse admittance to them, if the passengers don't pass muster. The strikers have organized a court which examines strangers found inside the lines. If they can't give satisfactory explanations, they are "deported."

OBSTACLES ON WASHINGTON ROAD

Four European Nations Faced With Domestic Difficulties in Planning For Conference

LLOYD GEORGE KEPT AT HOME

Leaders of Government in Italy, France and Belgium are Likewise in Trouble

By ED L. KEEN

London, Sept. 20.—The road to Washington today was paved with obstacles for every European government.

Great Britain, France, Belgium, Italy—each was faced with domestic difficulties in making plans to send delegates to the disarmament conference called by President Harding for November 11.

Of these four countries it was doubtful if a single premier could attend the full session at Washington.

1—David Lloyd George of Britain will almost certainly be kept at home by the Irish question and unemployment problems in England.

2—Carton De Wiart, of Belgium, will have the reconstruction of his government to consider for the Belgian parliamentary elections are due at the time of the Washington conference.

3—Signor Bonomi, of Italy, will probably be required to remain in Rome as the Italian parliament opens in November.

4—Aristide Briand, of France has reiterated his determination to head the French delegation to Washington, but increasing opposition to his departure led by his enemies will make it extremely difficult.

The same domestic problems which require the presence at home of Europe's prime ministers will probably prevent the presence in Washington of their ablest "right hand men".

Unemployment in Europe is a more immediate problem even than disarmament and any European statesman whose position depends upon popular support cannot afford to be long away from his constituents this winter.

That Delicate Question

This is a "dry" country—at least in spots. We drink water—also in spots.

Foreign countries are almost universally "wet". They drink wine champagne and beer. To them water is good for ducks and baths.

The bringing of booze into this country is unlawful and is punishable by fine and imprisonment.

A conference of envoys from many nations is to be held in Washington in November by invitation of the president. This conference is expected to provide a means of preserving the world intact for future generations.

These envoys are accustomed to their wine and liquors with their meals, just as we are to our tea, coffee or water. It is a habit bred in to them from infancy. To dispense with it would be a great hardship to them as the deprivation of coffee would be to us.

Are they to be allowed to bring their liquors in violation of our laws, or will they be politely advised in advance that water is good for them, as well as for ducks and baths?

And if they do bring it, will they further violate our laws by standing treat to the thirsty multitudes of Washington?

An envoy from another government is immune from arrest, and his baggage is not subject to search. Yet the bringing of contraband into this country constitutes an affront to the president of the United States.

It is a delicate question, yet it will undoubtedly be solved in some manner without undue embarrassment

ment to our distinguished visitors.

We fear, however, that when they reach Washington they will find themselves possessed of more "friends" than they ever dreamed of having before.

There are times when that "awful thirst" respect neither law nor person.

Says Federal Road Money is Wasted

There is a lurking notion in Washington that a lot of the federal aid money for highways is being wasted in many of the states. Possibly this impression is partly due to the fact that senators and representatives are prevented from giving their physical presence to the demonstrations of efficiency made by federal, state and district inspectors whose business it is to check up on the work of county and town highway officials. In any event there is a good deal of the "I want to be shown" sentiment in the national capital. Senator King of Utah says that the state road organizations have received from the government, various road building equipment and motor driven vehicles, valued in excess of $100,000,000. A bill for an additional $75,000,000 of federal aid money is in conference between the two branches of congress, and before the money is voted the same senator would like to have a general investigation of road operations throughout the United States to determine the truth of his claim that the appropriations made by Congress have been used and expended "in an extravagant and wasteful manner".

It is fair to say that the views of Senator King do not represent the general attitude of official Washington, and he will have plenty of trouble with his resolution, before he is able to convince his colleagues from States that have the best kinds of roads that the work is not being well and conscientiously done.

Forget the unkind things that are said about you and your mentality will be greater than that of those who say them.

No, keeping everlastingly at it does not necessarily bring success. It enables a person to go out and achieve it.

Even the man who needs a balance wheel is better than the one who has no wheel at all.

Some people are so indifferent to fate that fate never takes the trouble to bother them.

Unjust criticism often injures the critic more than the one who is criticised.

The more you lose your temper the less you have to lose.

Getting Down to Business
(Washington Post)

A striking example of practical business like administration in government is noted in the statement made to Chairman Kahn, of the House committee on military affairs, by Secretary of War Weeks that he has marked off $40,000,000 from the total appropriations for the War Department to be returned to the Treasury. Thus this sum, while authorized to be expended during the current fiscal year, will not be spent, but will be converted back into the Treasury.

In scaling down current appropriations in order to permit Congress in revising taxes to make a material reduction in taxation, a total cut of $350,000,000 was determined upon, $50,000,000 of which was to be borne by the War Department. Consequently Secretary Weeks already has found where four-fifths of his allotted saving is to be effected with ten months of the fiscal year in which to save the remaining $10,000,000.

The Secretary of War is an experienced business man who long since has learned that the first requisite of a successful business is to have the books balance. He realizes that it is as fatal to end the year with a deficit in governmental administration as in commerce or banking; that no concern can hope to exist which does not keep its expenses within its income. Hence when he was informed at the party council that his department would be expected to effect a saving of $50,000,000 this year, he proceeded to reduce expenditures that much, and he already has practically accomplished it.

We can't recall just who wrote it. But, anyhow, those disarmament conferees, when they assemble, should bear in mind the significant fact that "a column 20 men abreast, marching 60 days and nights—that would be the parade of the dead who fell in the great war on the side of the allies."

LINE PROBLEMS FACE HARVARD

Crimson Prepares for Biggest Season of Football Years—Want Good Linemen

HAVE A GOOD FOUNDATION

Games With Indiana, Georgia, Penn State and Centre are Features of the Card

Cambridge, Mass., Sept. 20.—Line problems are the only football troubles faced by Harvard as the Crimson gets ready for the biggest season of years.

Head Coach Bob Fisher is frank in saying that much of the success of the Crimson team depends on the development of good linemen to replace the heavy forwards graduated last year.

With Capt. Kane at end and Tolbert available, Fisher has the foundation for a good line, but the prospects are none too bright, as little is known of the other candidates.

The blackfield will not occasion much worry, as Owen Pitts and Buell are back. Owen and Pitts proved themselves last year and Buell gave great promise in the few times he had a chance to show.

The Harvard schedule is the most ambitious of years. The Crimson will have practically no loafing Saturdays between the opening double header on Sept. 24, and the finale with Yale on Nov. 19.

Games with Indiana, Georgia, Penn State and Centre are features of the card.

Harvard had a very successful season last year finishing with a clean slate in nine games. The 14-14 tie with Princeton was the closest thing of a defeat, while the 9-0 victory over Yale finished the season with a blaze of glory.

The 1921 schedule follows.

Middlebury and Boston University, Sept. 24; Holy Cross, Oct. 1; Indiana, Oct. 8; Georgia, Oct. 15; Penn States, Oct. 22; Centre, Oct. 29; Princeton, Nov. 5; Brown, Nov. 12; Yale, Nov. 19, at New Haven.

South African natives regarded Oom Paul as being absolutely bullet proof.

INDIANA TURNS TOWARDS PRACTICE

University is Everything But Optimistic Over Football Outlook For Season

FIRST GAME IN TWO WEEKS

Coach Stiehm Has Lost Eight of Last Year's Players and Team Will be a New One

(By United Press)

Bloomington, Ind., Sept. 20.—Opening of football practice finds Indiana University anything but optimistic as to this year's outcome. Eight men of last year's regular squad have been lost.

"We're up against a pretty stiff proposition," Coach E. L. Stiehm told the United Press. "Cravens, Faust, and Mathys, last year quarterbacks, have graduated. Pierce, 200-pound center, has also finished school, and Jess Lohrei, veteran of two seasons at center, has been declared ineligible on account of scholastic standing. Mundy, conference wrestling champion who played guard, Captain Risley and half back Minton have graduated.

Wilkins of Fort Wayne, last year's freshman quarter, and Brunett, who has never been out for practice before, are training for quarter. Regular practice begins on the 15th, which leaves only two weeks and a half before the game with Harvard at Cambridge, October 8. Minnesota, Notre Dame, Iowa and Purdue are later opponents.

Coach Stiehm has accepted conditionally an invitation for a post-season game with Florida at the Miami Palm Pete in December.

"Whether we go down there or not depends on how well the team shows up," he said. "In spite of evident drawbacks, I believe he will finish very creditably."

Indiana will use the new flying shift, Hoosier adaptation of the Minnesota shift, the coach said. This play provides for one man in motion while the rest of the backfield is shifting.

CRACK PLAYERS IN MATCH

Competing in National Amateur Gold Championship Play

St. Louis Country Club, Clayton, Mo., Sept. 20.—The battle for the National Amateur Golf Championship, now possessed by Charles "Chick" Evans, Jr., Chicago, is on.

Thirty two crack players today began match play at 36 holes.

Outstanding celebrities such as Champion Evans, Francis Ouimet of Boston, Bobbie Jones of Atlanta; William I. Hunter, King of the English golfers, and Thomas D. Armour, Scottish ace, will not clash until the third round scheduled for Thursday, providing they emerge victor in the first two rounds.

Russell Smith of Portland and Prescott Bush, St. Louis, met to play off a deadlock.

Watching The Score Board

Yesterday's hero—Williams hit a homer in the ninth with two on giving the Browns a 7 to 4 victory over the Athletics.

After blanking the Tigers for seven innings, Carl Mays blew and before the stampede could be stopped eight runs had been scored. The Yanks lost 10 to 6 and dropped out of first place.

The Red Sox trimmed the White Sox twice. Joe Bush pitched the first six to two victory while Red Faber was trimmed in the second game 8 to 5, after he had relieved Connolly in the seventh inning with the score tied.

Boeckel and Barbare got seven hits between them and the Braves beat the Reds 9 to 6.

The Cardinals made it four straight from the Phils by winning at 5 to 3.

Babe Adams ended the winning streak of the ten straight for the Giants when the Pirates trimmed the League leaders at 2 to 1.

THIS TIME LAST YEAR

* Babe Ruth scored his 148th run of the season and beat Ty Cobb's 1911 record of 147.
* Larry Gardner, Cleveland, hit a single and two triples and batted in six runs against the Red Sox.
* The Athletics scored six runs in the ninth after being blanked by Faber for eight innings, the White Sox winning 13 to 6.
* Rath, Cincinnati, hit two home runs off Benton.

YANKS HAND LEAD TO THE INDIANS

Detroit Ready to Quit When They Suddenly Found Themselves in Possession of 8 Runs

TIGERS IN NEW YORK TODAY

New York and Americans And Cleveland Will Stage Real Battle Beginning Friday

By HENRY L. FARELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, Sept. 20.—Cleveland is up again off the floor in the two man free for all with the New York Yankees.

The Yankees blew yesterday as only Yanks can blow and the Indians went back into first place.

Carl Mays is the champion pitcher of baseball in playing a four or five lead around the last hole. The Tigers were ready to get the "L" back to the hotel, yesterday when they suddenly were in possession of eight runs and the ball game in the eight inning.

Huggins used up four pitchers and even if they are going good, he can't do that every day and beat out the Indians.

The Indians had to go back into the lead because they were on a day's vacation and the Yankees insisted upon losing.

The Tigers continue in New York today while the Indians move over to Boston for a short visit. Joe Bush and Karr are out of the way because of the double bill yesterday.

If they get a jump on the Sox from the start by winning today the real race starts here Friday when the Yanks and the Indians get together in a series that will come close to deciding the pennant.

The Yanks have won eleven out of eighteen this season from the Indians. They always rise to the heights when they face Speaker but they have been known to get dizzy when they get high.

Pittsburgh's victory yesterday from the Giants does not make the Pirates way pennantward much easier. It reduced the lead of the Giants to three and one half games.

The Giants can win five of their nine remaining games and force

the Pirates to win eleven of their remaining twelve to cop the pennant.

SPORT CHATTER

New York, Sept. 20.—Johnny Buff, American flyweight champion will not give weight to Pete Herman, bantam weight champion when they meet here Friday night at the opening of the Madison Square Garden season. Buff, who is training here, said he would weigh 118 pounds, the bantam weight limit. The flyweight champion said he weighed 119 pounds when he knocked out Indian Russell in a preliminary to the Wilson-Downey thing.

New York, Sept. 20.—Final details of a return bout between Jack Dempsey and Jess Willard for the world's heavyweight championship may be completed this week. Tex Rickard who wants to stage the bout July 1 next in Jersey City has been discussing terms with Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager. Kearns wants the former title holder to engage in several bouts as proof of his condition, but Willard refuses to do this.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 20.—William T. Tilden, world's single champion, is the best tennis player in America today by his victory yesterday over Wallace F. Johnson, Philadelphia, in the final round of the Nationals singles championship at the Germantown Cricket club.

Much Suffering Caused by Waste Products in the Blood

What Science Knows About the Matter and How It Is Best Treated.

The blood is more important than any of the organs. It is thru the blood that the whole human body is directly or indirectly nourished. The blood gets its nourishment from the intestines. The intestines also contain waste products—undigested foods, acids, gases and refuse, which sometimes get in the blood.

When waste products get in the blood, nature will strive to cast them out. If your resistance is strong enough, nature will probably succeed. But if you are "below par," weak, run-down, and nervous, nature will begin to show signs of distress.

As a result, you will have that feeling of fatigue. You will lack the energy you need for the day's duties and pleasure. Minor ailments will begin to affect you—pimples, blackheads, and boils.

If the waste products are not gotten out of the blood at this point, it is possible a more serious skin eruption or disease will begin to show itself.

It is not infrequent for waste products to settle in the muscles and joints and cause rheumatism.

Listen to nature's warning. Your blood is your fountain source of energy—therefore keep your blood rich and pure.

For over 50 years, thousands and thousands of men and women have relied on S. S. S. to clear their blood of waste products. S. S. S. will improve the quality of your blood by relieving you of the waste products which cause impoverished blood and its allied troubles—skin disorders, rheumatism and a lowered vitality.

The men held are Walter and Earl Kruse, 19 and 22 years old, of Newport, Ky., Edward Harvat, 21, Columbus, O., and George Yack, 25, Omaha, Neb.

SHANTUNG ISSUE MAY BE FORCED

Developments Standing Out in Shantung Question May Compel Showdown Soon

TWO COUNTRIES DISAGREE

Return by Japan to China of Province Causes Them to Bring Out Differences

By A. L. BRADFORD
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Sept. 20.—The issue of the return by Japan of Shantung to China may soon be forced to a showdown, it was indicated today.

These developments stood out in the Shantung question:

1.—China, it is indicated, authoritatively, will refuse to accept the recent Japanese proposals for returning Shantung.

2.—Japan, it is believed, may assume an attitude that she is justified in retaining control of Shantung if China rejects the Japanese proposals.

China is believed anxious to bring the question up in the Washington conference on limitation of armament and Pacific and Far Eastern problems. Japan is more anxious that it be kept out.

Secretary of State Hughes, it is known, would be gratified if there could be a fair and just settlement of the Shantung problem before the conference, but he is also known to feel that all problems that are potential sources of international friction may well be taken up by the conference.

If China refuses the Japanese proposals, Japan may notify the United States that it cannot consent to a discussion of the matter in the conference.

Chinese Minister Sze and Japanese Ambassador Shidehara here have kept the state department informed on the attitude of their respective governments on the question ever since the Japanese proposals were made. While Hughes is believed to be maintaining a neutral attitude, he may informally use his good offices in conversations with these two envoys to bring the two countries to an agreement.

REWARD TO BE USED TO SAVE INVALID'S LIFE

Indianapolis Motorman Teeters Receives $100 For Saving Life of Everett Gray, 21 Months Old

WIFE INVALID FOR MONTHS.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 20.—The reward for the rescue of 21 months old Everett Gray will be used to save an invalid woman's life.

"It will all go to help take care of my wife," Thomas L. Teeters, Indianapolis motorman who jumped through his car window to save Baby Everett from death under the wheels, said when asked how he would spend the $100 award given him by the street car company.

Teeters was bruised and narrowly escaped serious injury when he rolled off the tracks with the baby in his arms. He has not been able to return to work. His wife, who has been an invalid for months, will enjoy better care because of the money given him for his act.

The Motorman's name has been sent to the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission. A medal and honorary membership were voted him by the Lions Club of this city.

The child, who has escaped from home to play in the street, was not hurt.

DISTRICT MEETING HELD AT SPICELAND

Knights of Pythias From Several Counties at Session Under Auspices of Henry County Lodges

BIG DINNER SERVED AT NOON

Series of Addresses Given in Which Fraternal Order is Praised For its Good Work

(Special to the Daily Republican.)

Spiceland, Ind., Sept. 20.—Over 1200 people attended the big K. of P. picnic at Spiceland Sunday which brought to a close a very successful year under the leadership of V. T. Davis, County deputy.

Mr. Davis as county deputy has done a great work for the K. of P.'s in Henry County. He has attended every county meeting and secured the hearty cooperation and support of every lodge of the order in the county. Under his capable leadership the order has grown rapidly and Henry County stands as one of the strongest and best governed of any in Indiana.

After the chickens and pumpkin pies and all sorts of good things to eat were disposed of and old acquaintances renewed and a general spirit of fellowship prevailing for some time, the crowd gathered together in a beautiful shady spot among the trees and springs of the sanitarium grounds the home of the famous Bezor water and a most interesting program was given.

Mr. Davis presided as chairman of the meeting which was opened with prayer by Mr. J. J. Rutledge, and then Ralph Test gave an address of welcome to the other counties of the district represented in behalf of Henry County, and was followed by a most cordial address of welcome in behalf of Spiceland to all present by J. C. Haskett. Music was furnished by the Wilkinson Boys Band.

Following Mr. Haskett there were short addresses by Carl R. Mitchell of Martinsville, J. M. Monahan of Orleans, Robert A. Brown, of Indianapolis, L. B. Elmore of Monticello and Perry Newby of Knights-town, after which a most interesting and forcible address was given by Mrs. Daisy Douglas Barr of Newcatsle. Mrs. Barr spoke of the good work of the order and said if all people would take the responsibility for the betterment of the nation that the K. of P. take, that crime and disorder would vanish from our country.

The meeting was attended by members of every lodge in the county as well as from a number of adjoining counties. Henry county has done her part and gained a place in the front ranks of the state.

At the beginning of the Pythian year Tom Neal the Grand Chancellor gave as his slogan 75,000 members for Indiana and which has been passed by nearly 2,000 which is remarkable considering general conditions.

Everybody left feeling the meeting was a success.

FOREIGN WAR "VETS" HOLD NATIONAL MEET

Five Thousand Expected at Detroit
This Week For Encampment
and Business Sessions

TO ELECT A COMMANDER

(By United Press)
Detroit, Sept. 20.—Veterans of foreign wars met here today for their national encampment. Five thousand are expected to be here by the middle of the week.

The veterans' adjusted compensation bill will be the chief principal discussion to be taken up by the veterans at their business session. Other topics to come before the encampment include the veterans' homestead bill; the proposed legislation on the appointment of veterans in the civil service and the war bond plan of adjusted compensation as an added plan to the national bonus bill.

Election of officers is scheduled for the noon session Saturday. Prominent among those being mentioned for the office of national commander are Colonel T. L. Huston, part owner of the New York American League baseball club, Major Robert S. Allen, New York and Sergeant Julius Berg, New York.

Captain Robert G. Woodside, Pittsburgh, present commander, is also seeking re-election.

Wallace Reid is Coming

Dusty Rhoades, Virginia MacMurrin and Pat MacMurrin, the three principal characters in "What's Your Hurry"? the fine automobile story in which Wallace Reid was starred some months ago, are revived in Mr. Reid's newest picture, "Too Much Speed", which will be featured at the Princess theatre Wednesday and Thursday.

The picture opens with Dusty Rhoades' withdrawal from the racing game and he plans for his wedding to Virginia MacMurrin. While Dusty and Pat MacMurrin are on their way home in a limousine, a rival dealer, whom Dusty had formerly represented in racing events, passes them in a car. Dusty's sporting blood is aroused and he speeds up the limousine and passes the rival but ends in the ditch. MacMurrin is angry and calls off the wedding, whereupon Dusty takes the waiting bride, jumps in a roadster and speeds away. Old Pat follows and at the first small town, both are sent to prison for speeding.

Having served his term, Dusty leaves jail determined to enter the race. With Virginia's help, he secretly buys Pat's Pakro racing car, which has not been on the track for two years, and on the day of the big event, enters. Dusty wins the race and Pat willingly consents to the marriage.

"Honeydew"

An enjoyable musical comedy by Efram Zimbalist and Joseph W. Herbert with many novelties in stage settings will be presented in Indianapolis for the first time for one week beginning Monday, September 26 at the Shubert Murat theatre. We hear about its wonderful success, perhaps we hear snatches of the music, but we don't always see and hear the piece itself, until New York flings it to us. Therefore Indianapolis theatregoers might offer a vote of thanks to Joe Weber, no mean little impresario, for bringing "Honeydew" to our shores direct from its long sojourn at the Casino, with everything intact from east to curtain. The curtain incidentally is only one of many novelties. There is the practical winding stairway, dramatically utilized in the grim colorful Chinese phantasy; the interior within an exterior in the second act, when the spectator looks on and through a room in a Larchmont home, past massive columns to the cool blue-sound below; the four little Chinese maids, quaint in speech, apt in stage action. They give us neatest of tags to the first curtain fall, with their unexpected "Drop Us a Line," through the tiny ropes; they stir human hearts as they shake their cocktail strainers, to "It's Time To Take a Drink."

For months Zimbalist's score had been awaited eagerly and it is good. Not too musically as to be over the heads of those who frequent the theatre; real melodies, with substance and variety, a rollicking horn-pipe, a bit of Chinese inventiveness, a Spanish dance, waltzes in noble rhythm, even a quartette number for male voices.

Mr. Herbert, a comedian of excellent qualities in his day, has instilled actual humor into his book and his verses. The cast is worthy of the production. Mr. Goldsworthy as the composer whose lowly "Bug" song won him his second wife insofar as it aided the sales of his father-in-law's famous bug powder, played in good form and taste throughout. Miss Madalen Gray, as a scheming mother with a fondness for olives is rarely capable exponent of comic character.

Mae Marsh at Mystic Again

Mae Marsh, the petite and popular emotional actress, was enthusiastically applauded by a large audience at the Mystic Theatre last night at the opening of "Nobody's Kid", the Robertson-Cole production in which she is starred will be seen again today.

The new vehicle for Miss Marsh is a screen adaptation of the popular novel, "Mary Cary", written by Kate Langley Boshier. Miss Marsh is in the bad graces of Miss Bray, "Mary Cary", which gives her an excellent opportunity to display her whimsical art.

Mary is an inmate of the York-burg Orphan Asylum and, because of her prank playing propensities, is in the bad graces of Miss Bray, the superintendent, and Dr. Rudd, the supervising trustee. Miss Bray is determined to break the child's spirit and makes life miserable for her. About the time that Mary contemplates running away from the asylum, Katherine Trent, a wealthy young woman, volunteers to act as nurse in the institution. Mary and Katherine become great friends.

In the course of time Mary discovers that Katherine is unhappy because she has quarreled with her fiancé. Mary also overhears a conversation, from which she learns that she has an uncle, Dr. Park Alden, living in Detroit. Mary decides to write her uncle and ask him to take her away from the asylum. She does, and he responds immediately. Mary discovers that her uncle is Katherine's sweetheart. Through their mutual interest in Mary Dr. Alden and Katherine are reunited. The story works out to a satisfactory climax.

National Guard to be Sworn
Into Service Wednesday

TO DRILL AS USUAL TONIGHT

Shelbyville, Rushville, Greensburg
and Indianapolis Company to
Form First Battalion

The National Guard company which has recently been organized here, has been designated as Company C of the 151st Indiana Infantry regiment, according to information which has been received by Will B. Brann, captain.

The company will be sworn into the service Wednesday evening at the Wade Sherman building in South Perkins street and will become a full fledged militia company at that time.

The drill which had been previously announced for tonight at the Sherman building, will be held as arranged, regardless of the fact that the company will again assemble the following night to be sworn in.

Some officer of the Indiana National guard, from the office of the state adjutant general, Harry B. Smith, will come here to swear in the local company. It is not known if the local officers who the officer will be.

One company of infantry from Shelbyville, one from Greensburg, the local company and a machine gun company of Indianapolis will form the first battalion of the 151st infantry, according to information received here.

The 151st Infantry will be commanded by Colonel D. Wray DePrez of Shelbyville, who is well known here, and who has been influential in the organization of new units of the Indiana National Guard.

Company C has fifty enlisted men and three officers, which entitles it to federal recognition. It is expected that such recognition will soon be forthcoming, as application has been made to the war department at Washington.

The local company has no permanent headquarters, but it is believed that some building will be rented by the state authorities to be used as an armory shortly after the company is sworn into the service. The preliminary inspection of local sites has already been made by a representative of the adjutant general, on whose report and recommendations a selection of an armory will be made. Several buildings are reported under consideration.

RUSH POST 150 GETS
BEHIND THE CARNIVALAmerican Legion Signs New Contract With Barkoot Company
Opening Monday Night

WILL OPERATE STAND THERE

Arrangements were completed Monday evening for the Barkoot Carnival company to appear under the auspices of Rush post No. 150 of the American Legion. The Legion will receive a fixed amount for endorsing the enterprise and will also have permission to operate a stand free of charge at the carnival in a tent provided by the company.

The Legion will use its share of the proceeds to apply to a fund which is being accumulated to outfit their club rooms over the Ida Dixon millinery store.

The carnival company first made arrangements to come here under the auspices of the Legion, but would not live up to the contract, according to members of the Legion. The ex-service men's organization then withdrew all support from the enterprise, but negotiations were started again Monday which resulted in a new contract being signed.

The carnival opened on the South Main street grounds Monday evening and was reported to have had very liberal patronage. They have three riding devices, twelve shows and several concessions.

Pie In Danger
Of Extinction

Architects of Great American Dessert, in Convention Assembled, Decide Activities of Short Change Counters and Mince Meat Moonshiners Must be Curbed.

(By United Press)
Chicago, Sept. 20.—Pie—the great American dessert—must be reformed, or it will meet the fate of the Dodo. The activities of short change counters and mince meat moonshiners must be curbed.

This is the word that has gone forth from the pie architects of the country who were here today attending the convention of the American Institute of Bakers.

Out of the convention will come a uniform standardized pie which will defy the cake-eating opposition and which will not cause indigestion.

Dr. H. E. Barnard, Minneapolis, outlined the nature of the great work. He told of the advantages of a definite number of fork marks on the milled edge of pastry, how thick the crust and how thick the "makings" should be to be digestible.

"Pie has come to mean all sorts of things," said the doctor. "When we get through you will be able to order pie and get pie—not a tart or a mountain of dough."

FURTHER SHORTAGES

Discovered Adolph Schaefer of Tell City Also Took About $9,000 In Currency

SEEN IN SAN FRANCISCO

(By United Press)
Tell City, Ind., Sept. 20.—Further shortages, amounting to about $11,000, today were charged to Adolph Schaefer, missing cashier of the Citizens National Bank here who left Tell City Sept. 3, taking with him it is alleged, about $21,000 in Liberty bonds belonging to the bank. Between $8,000 and $9,000 in currency is now missing from the bank and a shortage of about $1,100 has been discovered on the books of the building loan fund and savings association, of which Schaefer was treasurer.

The missing money was old currency which had been prepared for shipment to the treasury for new money. This was never received at the treasury department.

Schaefer before leaving, sought to provide for his mother's future. One hundred five-dollar bills were found between the covers of his mother's bed. She returned the money to the bank.

Schaefer has been seen in Los Angeles, California but has disappeared. It is believed by detectives of the American Surety Co., that he has gone to Mexico. In San Francisco, he was met by two friends from Tell City who invited him to from Tell City who invited him to but failed to show up. The friends said he appeared to be nervous.

CONFERENCE IS EXPECTED

London, Sept. 20.—The pendulum of interest in the tense Irish situation has swung back to Gairloch, Scotland whence a short, but proprietary reply from Lloyd George to Eamonn De Valera was momentarily expected today.

Yesterday's note from the Sinn Fein leader, saying that he would confirm the Irish acceptance of the premier's invitation to a conference if "surrender" of Irish principles were not demanded was considered to have finally paved the way for a meeting. Lloyd George, it was believed, had only to reiterate that the conference would be "free on both sides and without prejudice" to make the proposed conference immediately possible.

RAIL LABOR BOARD
APPROVES SCHEME

Collective Bargaining by Railroad Unions Is Upheld in Pennsylvania Case Decision

WANTED TO DEAL DIRECTLY

Railroad is Denied Petition and is Likewise Handed Sharp Rebuke by the Board

(By United Press)

Chicago, Sept. 20.—Collective bargaining by labor unions with railroads had been approved by the United States railroad labor board today.

In a decision handed down by the board on a petition filed by the Pennsylvania system, it was declared the railroad must deal with labor unions as organization.

The Pennsylvania, in its petition, "insisted" that it be granted the right to deal directly with its employees instead of with outside labor representatives.

The road was handed a sharp rebuke by the board which charged that a "campaign of mis-statements had been waged" against the judicial body.

In labor circles, the decision was viewed as a partial victory for organized labor and as a blow against the "open shop".

If the Pennsylvania had been upheld in its contention, union representatives said, it would have meant that unions in the shop of that company, would have had no status whatsoever.

The board declared that organized labor represented the majority of railroad employees and cited the example that very few cases had been brought before the body by unorganized employees.

The case of the Pennsylvania is not entirely closed, however. The board in its ruling granted the road a hearing, set for Sept. 26 on the following points:

The question as to what employees, if any not in active service of the carrier, such as men laid off or on leave of absence shall be allowed to vote in the selection of representatives.

The question of how to determine the representative capacity of the spokesmen of the unions.

VACATIONISTS ARE GIVEN THEIR INNING

Rotary Club Hears From Members Who Have Been Away During Summer at Meeting Today

FAVORS CHANGE IN BY-LAWS

The Rushville Rotary club, at its regular meeting at the Social Club at noon today, heard from members who have been on vacations and also listened to short talks on Rotary subjects.

The club unanimously approved changes made in the constitution and by-laws of the International Association of Rotary clubs at the annual international convention at Edinburgh, Scotland, last June.

It was announced that the president and secretary of the local club would attend a conference of the presidents and secretaries of Indiana Rotary clubs at the Claypool hotel in Indianapolis Thursday. At this meeting the time and place for the annual conference of Indiana Rotary clubs will be selected.

Dr. Vernal Casady, former Rushville boy who has been preparing to practice medicine, was a guest of the club and spoke briefly.

Gale Foley of St. Petersburg Florida, formerly of Rushville, was also a guest. He is a member of the St. Petersburg Rotary club.

The club also discussed plans for the next ball game with the Kiwanis club, which will be held next Tuesday.

WILL OPEN THE CONFERENCE

President Harding to Speak on Unemployment Situation

(By United Press)
Washington, Sept. 20.—President Harding will open the unemployment conference here next Monday with an address or message outlining the views of the administration as to how work can be provided for the millions now jobless, it was learned at the White House today.

Following the announcement by Secretary of Commerce Hoover of the names of the thirty-eight delegates, final preparations for the conference were to be made at the cabinet meeting today. Every effort will be made to relieve the unemployment situation before winter, Secretary of Commerce Hoover stated.

SEN. BORAH TO LEAD
TREATY OPPOSITION

Decides He Can Not Vote to Ratify Because It Ties United States Up With Versailles Pact

IT INVOLVES INTERFERENCE

Washington, Sept. 20.—President Harding will submit to the senate for ratification the new peace treaty between the United States, Germany, Austria and Hungary it was stated on high authority at the White House today. No special message will go with the treaty except a formal message of transmission.

Washington, Sept. 20.—Senator William E. Borah will lead Republican opposition in the senate to the Harding-Hughes peace treaty with Germany.

After long deliberation, Borah has made up his mind that he cannot vote to ratify the treaty, because in his opinion it ties the United States into the Versailles treaty.

Borah is expected to start his fight shortly after President Harding sends the new treaty to the Senate which probably will be within a few days.

If the United States exercises in the slightest degree the rights it thus claims, it must take part in administering and enforcing the reparations settlement, Borah holds. To do this it must officially assume membership on the reparations commission. This Borah feels means that the United States will take membership in a super government which is imposing its mandates upon Germany.

The economic clauses involve similar interference, if the new treaty is to be carried out, Borah believes. Inevitably he holds the United States will be called on to sanction settlements and decisions of doubtful justice.

STINGING SLAP
TO RADICALISM

Pres. John L. Lewis Calls on United Mine Workers to Rebuke Leaders Who Violated Laws

HE URGES UNITY OF ACTION

Delegates Stand Behind Pres. Lewis in Declaration That Wage Reductions Will be Contested

Indianapolis, Sept. 20.—President John L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers today administered a stinging slap to radicalism within the ranks of organized labor in his keynote address to the miners convention. He struck particularly at the "left wing" of his organization.

Lewis called upon the convention to rebuke Alexander Howat, Frank Farrington and Robert H. Harlin, district leaders of Kansas, Illinois and Washington respectively for their official acts which he said violated the union laws.

Other recommendations made to the convention by Lewis were:

Absolute unity of action in fighting the wage reductions which the mine operators propose to force at their wage scale conference next March.

Relinquishment of the recent demands for nationalization of the mines.

Vigorous prosecution of the fight for unionization of the West Virginia mine war area.

Institution of legal proceedings to test the constitutionality of the Kansas industrial court law.

"While other powerful trade union organizations have been compelled to accommodate themselves to the pressure of economic conditions our union has unflinchingly held its lines of battle and our forces are everywhere intact," Lewis said. "We have refused to retreat and despite the drum fire of adverse criticism levelled at our union, no wage reductions have been taken and it is our high purpose to continue this policy."

The union chief counselled the 2,500 delegates to carry out their contracts with the operators in every detail but in driving his point for a determined stand against the wage cut, he pointed out the unemployment in the coal industry and said it is "unreasonable to believe that to further reduce their wages would be an action predicated upon equity or wise policy." This bore out the general belief that the miners will

SIX ACTIVE CASES ARE DISCOVERED AT CLINIC

Fourteen Persons Are Examined For Tuberculosis By Dr. James H. Stygal Monday

NEEDED FOUR TIMES A YEAR

Out of fourteen persons examined at the tuberculosis clinic here Monday, which was held under the auspices of the Woman's Council of Rushville, six active cases of tuberculosis were found, it was announced today.

The clinic was conducted by Dr. James H. Stygal, new director of the state clinical service, who was in charge at the first clinic held here last spring. The clinics which have been held in thirty-five counties in the last five months are made possible by the sale of Red Cross Seals during the holiday season under the auspices of the Indiana Tuberculosis association.

Dr. Stygal expressed the opinion Monday that there should be a minimum of four clinics a year in Rushville, because there was a need for them here and for the additional reason that a ready response has always been found in Rush county to such an appeal. The Woman's Council, however, is not in a position to support that number each year unless more funds are forthcoming for the purpose.

Dr. Stygal had the assistance of Miss Fort, Rushville visiting nurse, and three nurses from the Dr. Sexton hospital.

strike rather than submit to the reductions at the expiration of the wage contract next March.

Lewis called attention of the convention to the refusal of Frank Farrington and other Illinois union officials to comply with the decision of the executive board requiring them to give an itemized accounting of $27,000 which was spent during a "wildcat" strike in Illinois two years ago.

Regarding the union situation in Kansas, he said Alexander Howat has continually refused to obey orders of the international union and that he had failed to call off two outlaw strikes in his district after the executive board has directed him to do so.

In his report on the recent strike in Alabama Lewis struck at Harlin and Farrington with the assertion that they spread malicious propaganda among the striking miners in an effort to injure the union by declaring Lewis was paying organizers with union funds for conducting campaign work in behalf of the present administration.

Unionization of the West Virginia "mine war" counties developed today into the central question of the convention.

International union officers realized that this movement is of first importance in their determined fight against the wage reduction proposed by the mine operators.

Mingo, McDowell, Logan and Mercer counties—the scene of the civil strife—were said to be the battle ground upon which the operators and the union will fight out the entire question of labor organization.

During the nation-wide coal strike in November, 1919, the mines in those four counties operated by non-union men produced enough coal to materially aid the country in the fuel crisis through which it was passing. These mines are among the most productive in West Virginia and both the miners and operators appreciate their importance.

Each side is aware that as long as these mines rich in coal deposits, produce sufficient fuel, to operate the nation's basic industries, a strike of miners would not be as effective.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

New York, Sept. 20—Oils were heavy during the early trading on the New York Stock Exchange today and Mexican Petroleum led the slump. This stock made an early low at 109 3/4 being off just ten points from its high of the last two weeks.

Asphalt sold down to 48 1/2. Steel common was again up during early trading, but easy yesterday, it failed to influence the list and independent steels were fractionally lower. Steel common was up 1/2 at 78 3/4. Baldwin Locomotive's first sale today was 86 up 1/2, but this gain was quickly lost.

American International made an early low below 30. Rails were fairly steady during the first hour and D. L. & W. held up around 107. Southern Pacific gained a fraction at the opening.

Prices were irregular at the opening of the New York Stock Exchange today. Opening prices included:

Bethlehem "B" 54, off 1/2; Asphalt 48 1/2, up 1/2; Sinsbaker 74 1/2, up 1/2; Sinclair 19 1/2, off 1/2; Pan American 51, unchanged; U. S. Rubber 38 unchanged; American Sugar 62 1/2 off 1/2; Mexican Pete 110 1/2 up 1/2; Baldwin Loco 86 up 1/2; Reading 70 1/2 unchanged; U. S. Steel 78 3/4 up 1/2; Crucible 61 unchanged; Northern Pacific 77 1/2 unchanged; Southern Pacific 77 1/2 up 1/2; Retail Stores 52 1/2 off 1/2.

as if all the coal fields in the country were tied up.

The matter that brought the West Virginia situation to the front was the repeated declaration of President John L. Lewis that the union will fight with all its strength against the wage reduction which the operators say they will put into effect at the expiration of their wage contract next March. A canvass of the 2,500 miners attending the convention from all coal regions showed that Lewis' position most probably will be endorsed by the meeting.

The convention itself will not deal directly with the wage question, but it is likely to adopt instructions for the scale committee which meets the operators in March. The matter then would be entrusted to the scale committee and another convention likely would be called in February to formulate definite demands or to accept the report of the committee.

Lewis' assertion that the full strength of the union will be thrown behind the fight against wage cuts was taken to mean that a coal strike would be called to protect the miners' pay envelopes.

The union chief was expected to open his fight against the "left wing" of the organization when he submits his report to the meeting late today. He has taken a decided stand against the activities of Alex Howat, Kansas district leader, and President Frank Farrington of the Illinois district whom he terms radicals.

Governor Warren T. McCray and Mayor Charles W. Jewett welcomed the miners as the meeting opened in Tomlinson hall.

CALIFORNIA OIL FIELDS STRIKE SCENE

Armed Strikers Patrol District and Refuse to Allow Outside Workers To Enter

THEIR DEMANDS REFUSED

(By United Press)

Bakersfield, Calif., Sept. 20.—Armed strikers who have been sworn in as special deputy sheriffs and constables today picketed the great oil fields in this district.

The pickets formed a "law and order" committee and with the apparent consent of the civil authorities, who are in sympathy with them, they blocked all roads leading to the fields.

The oil fields in this district are among the richest, covering several hundred square miles and containing hundreds of the most valuable producing oil wells in the country.

The strikers declare they will not permit any outside workers to enter the oil district until the employers meet their demands.

Eight thousand men are on strike, of whom 450 are members of the Law and Order committee and about eight thousand are still at work for companies not affected by the strike.

Strike sentries halt all automobiles at the dead line on the edge of the oil fields and refuse admittance to them; if the passengers don't pass muster. The strikers have organized a court which examines strangers found inside the lines. If they can't give satisfactory explanations, they are "deported."

OBSTACLES ON WASHINGTON ROAD

Four European Nations Faced With Domestic Difficulties in Planning For Conference

LLOYD GEORGE KEPT AT HOME

Leaders of Government in Italy, France and Belgium are Likewise in Trouble

By ED L. KEEN

London, Sept. 20.—The road to Washington today was paved with obstacles for every European government.

Great Britain, France, Belgium, Italy—each was faced with domestic difficulties in making plans to send delegates to the disarmament conference called by President Harding for November 11.

Of these four countries it was doubtful if a single premier could attend the full session at Washington.

1—David Lloyd George of Britain will almost certainly be kept at home by the Irish question and unemployment problems in England.

2—Carton De Wiart, of Belgium, will have the reconstruction of his government to consider for the Belgian parliamentary elections are due at the time of the Washington conference.

3—Signor Bonomi, of Italy will probably be required to remain in Rome as the Italian parliament opens in November.

4—Aristide Briand, of France has reiterated his determination to head the French delegation to Washington, but increasing opposition to his departure led by his enemies will make it extremely difficult.

The same domestic problems which require the presence at home of Europe's prime ministers will probably prevent the presence in Washington of their ablest "right hand men."

Unemployment in Europe is a more immediate problem even than disarmament and any European statesman whose position depends upon popular support cannot afford to be long away from his constituents this winter.

That Delicate Question
This is a "dry" country—at least in spots. We drink water—also in spots.
Foreign countries are almost universally "wet". They drink wine champagne and beer. To them water is good for ducks and baths.
The bringing of booze into this country is unlawful and is punishable by fine and imprisonment.

A conference of envoys from many nations is to be held in Washington in November by invitation of the president. This conference is expected to provide a means of preserving the world intact for future generations.
These envoys are accustomed to their wine and liquors with their meals, just as we are to our tea, coffee or water. It is a habit bred into them from infancy. To dispense with it would be a great hardship to them as the deprivation of coffee would be to us.
Are they to be allowed to bring their liquors in violation of our laws, or will they be politely advised in advance that water is good for them, as well as for ducks and baths?
And if they do bring it, will they further violate our laws by standing treat to the thirsty multitudes of Washington?
An envoy from another government is immune from arrest, and his baggage is not subject to search. Yet the bringing of contraband into this country constitutes an affront to the president of the United States.
It is a delicate question, yet it will undoubtedly be solved in some manner without undue embarrassment

ment to our distinguished visitors.
We fear, however, that when they reach Washington they will find themselves possessed of more "friends" than they ever dreamed of having before.
There are times when that "awful thirst" respect neither law nor person.
Says Federal Road Money is Wasted
There is a lurking notion in Washington that a lot of the federal aid money for highways is being wasted in many of the states. Possibly this impression is partly due to the fact that senators and representatives are prevented from giving their physical presence to the demonstrations of efficiency made by federal, state and district inspectors whose business it is to check up on the work of county and town highway officials. In any event there is a good deal of the "I want to be shown" sentiment in the national capital. Senator King of Utah says that the state road organizations have received from the government, various road building equipment and motor driven vehicles, valued in excess of $100,000,000. A bill for an additional $75,000,000 of federal aid money is in conference between the two branches of congress, and before the money is voted the same senator would like to have a general investigation of road operations throughout the United States to determine the truth of his claim that the appropriations made by Congress have been used and expended "in an extravagant and wasteful manner".
It is fair to say that the views of Senator King do not represent the general attitude of official Washington, and he will have plenty of trouble with his resolution, before he is able to convince his colleagues from States that have the best kinds of roads that the work is not being well and conscientiously done.
Forget the unkind things that are said about you and your mentality will be greater than that of those who say them.
No, keeping everlastingly at it does not necessarily bring success. It enables a person to go out and achieve it.
Even the man who needs a balance wheel is better than the one who has no wheel at all.
Some people are so indifferent to fate that fate never takes the trouble to bother them.
Unjust criticism often injures the critic more than the one who is criticized.
The more you lose your temper the less you have to lose.

four-fifths of his allotted saving is to be effected within ten months of the fiscal year in which to save the remaining $10,000,000.
The Secretary of War is an experienced business man who long since has learned that the first requisite of a successful business is to have the books balanced. He realizes that it is as fatal to end the year with a deficit in governmental administration as in commerce or banking; that no concern can hope to exist which does not keep its expenses within its income. Hence when he was informed at the party council that his department would be expected to effect a saving of $50,000,000 this year, he proceeded to reduce expenditures that much, and he already has practically accomplished it.

LINE PROBLEMS FACE HARVARD

Crimson Prepares for Biggest Season of Football Years—Want Good Linemen

HAVE A GOOD FOUNDATION

Games With Indiana, Georgia, Penn State and Centre are Features of the Card

Cambridge, Mass., Sept. 20.—Line problems are the only football troubles faced by Harvard as the Crimson gets ready for the biggest season of years.

Head Coach Bob Fisher is frank in saying that much of the success of the Crimson team depends on the development of good linemen to replace the heavy forwards graduated last year.

With Capt. Kane at end and Tolbert available, Fisher has the foundation for a good line, but the prospects are none too bright, as little is known of the other candidates.

The blackfield will not occasion much worry, as Owen Pitts and Buell are back. Owen and Pitts proved themselves last year and Buell gave great promise in the few times he had a chance to show.

The Harvard schedule is the most ambitious of years. The Crimson will have practically no loafing Saturdays between the opening double header on Sept. 24, and the finale with Yale on Nov. 19.

Games with Indiana, Georgia, Penn State and Centre are features of the card.

Harvard had a very successful season last year finishing with a clean slate in nine games. The 14-14 tie with Princeton was the closest thing of a defeat, while the 9-0 victory over Yale finished the season with a blaze of glory.

The 1921 schedule follows.

Middlebury and Boston University, Sept. 24; Holy Cross, Oct. 1; Indiana, Oct. 8; Georgia, Oct. 15; Penn State, Oct. 22; Centre, Oct. 20; Princeton, Nov. 5; Brown, Nov. 12; Yale, Nov. 19, at New Haven.

South African natives regarded Oom Paul as being absolutely bullet proof.

GIRLS! LEMONS

WHITEN SKIN AND
BLEACH FRECKLES

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty and whiteness of your skin. Famous stage beauties use this lemon lotion to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion, also as a freckle, sunburn, and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate.

INDIANA TURNS TOWARDS PRACTICE

University is Everything But Optimistic Over Football Outlook For Season

FIRST GAME IN TWO WEEKS

Coch Stiehm Has Lost Eight of Last Year's Players and Team Will Be a New One

(By United Press)

Bloomington, Ind., Sept. 20.—Opening of football practice finds Indiana University anything but optimistic as to this year's outcome. Eight men of last year's regular squad have been lost.

"We're up against a pretty stiff proposition," Coach E. L. Stiehm told the United Press. "Cravens, Faust, and Mathys, last year quarterbacks, have graduated. Pierce, 200-pound center, has also finished school, and Jess Lohrei, veteran of two seasons at center, has been declared ineligible on account of scholastic standing. Mundy, conference wrestling champion who played guard, Captain Risley and half back Minton, have graduated.

Wilkins of Fort Wayne, last year's freshman quarter, and Brunett, who has never been out for practice before, are training for quarter. Regular practice begins on the 15th, which leaves only two weeks and a half before the game with Harvard at Cambridge, October 8. Minnesota, Notre Dame, Iowa and Purdue are later opponents.

Coach Stiehm has accepted conditionally an invitation for a post season game with Florida at the Miami Palm Pete in December.

"Whether we go down there or not depends on how well the team shows up," he said. "In spite of evident drawbacks, I believe he will finish very creditably."

Indiana will use the new flying shift, Hoosier adaptation of the Minnesota shift, the coach said. This play provides for one man in motion while the rest of the backfield is shifting.

CRACK PLAYERS IN MATCH

Competing in National Amateur Gold Championship Play

St. Louis Country Club, Clayton, Mo., Sept. 20.—The battle for the National Amateur Golf Championship, now possessed by Charles "Chick" Evans, Jr., Chicago, is on.

Thirty two crack players today began match play at 36 holes.

Outstanding celebrities such as Champion Evans, Francis Ouimet of Boston, Bobbie Jones of Atlanta; William I. Hunter, King of the English golfers, and Thomas D. Armour, Scottish ace, will not clash until the third round scheduled for Thursday, providing they emerge victor in the first two rounds.

Russell Smith of Portland and Prescott Bush, St. Louis, met to play off a deadlock.

Watching The Score Board

Yesterday's hero—Williams hit a homer in the ninth with two on giving the Browns a 7 to 4 victory over the Athletics.

After blanking the Tigers for seven innings, Carl Mays blew and before the stampede could be stopped eight runs had been scored. The Yanks lost 10 to 6 and dropped out of first place.

The Red Sox trimmed the White Sox twice. Joe Bush pitched the first six to two victory while Red Faber was trimmed in the second game 8 to 5, after he had relieved Connolly in the seventh inning with the score tied.

Boeckel and Barbare got seven hits between them and the Braves beat the Reds 9 to 6.

The Cardinals made it four straight from the Phils by winning at 5 to 3.

Babe Adams ended the winning streak of the ten straight for the Giants when the Pirates trimmed the League leaders at 2 to 1.

THIS TIME LAST YEAR

Babe Ruth scored his 148th run of the season and beat Ty Cobb's 1911 record of 147.

Larry Gardner, Cleveland, hit a single and two triples and batted in six runs against the Red Sox.

The Athletics scored six runs in the ninth after being blanked by Faber for eight innings, the White Sox winning 13 to 6.

Rath, Cincinnati, hit two home runs off Benton.

YANKS HAND LEAD TO THE INDIANS

Detroit Ready to Quit When They Suddenly Found Themselves in Possession of 8 Runs

TIGERS IN NEW YORK TODAY

New York and Americans And Cleveland Will Stage Real Battle Beginning Friday

By HENRY L. FARREL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, Sept. 20.—Cleveland is up again off the floor in the two man free for all with the New York Yankees.

The Yankees blew yesterday as only Yanks can blow and the Indians went back into first place.

Carl Mays is the champion pitcher of baseball in playing a four or five lead around the last hole.

The Tigers were ready to get the "L" back to the hotel, yesterday when they suddenly were in possession of eight runs and the ball game in the eighth inning.

Huggins used up four pitchers and even if they are going good, he can't do that every day and beat out the Indians.

The Indians had to go back into the lead because they were on a day's vacation and the Yankees insisted upon losing.

The Tigers continue in New York today while the Indians move over to Boston for a short visit. Joe Bush and Kam are out of the way because of the double bill yesterday.

If they get a jump on the Sox from the start by winning today the real race starts here Friday when the Yanks and the Indians get together in a series that will come close to deciding the pennant.

The Yanks have won eleven out of eighteen this season from the Indians. They always rise to the heights when they face Speaker but they have been known to get dizzy when they get high.

Pittsburgh's victory yesterday from the Giants does not make the Pirates way pennantward much easier. It reduced the lead of the Giants to three and one half games.

The Giants can win five of their nine remaining games and force

the Pirates to win eleven of their remaining twelve to cop the pennant.

SPORT CHATTER

New York, Sept. 20.—Johnny Buff, American flyweight champion will not give weight to Pete Herman, bantam weight champion when they meet here Friday night at the opening of the Madison Square Garden season. Buff, who is training here, said he would weigh 118 pounds; the bantam weight limit. The flyweight champion said he weighed 119 pounds when he knocked out Indian Russell in a preliminary to the Wilson-Downey thing.

New York, Sept. 20.—Final details of a return bout between Jack Dempsey and Jess Willard for the world's heavyweight championship may be completed this week. Tex Rickard who wants to stage the bout July 1 next in Jersey City has been discussing terms with Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager. Kearns wants the former title holder to engage in several bouts as proof of his condition, but Willard refuses to do this.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 20.—William T. Tilden, world's single champion, is the best tennis player in America today by his victory yesterday over Wallace F. Johnson, Philadelphia, in the final round of the Nationals singles championship at the Germantown Cricket club.

Much Suffering Caused by Waste Products in the Blood

What Science Knows About the Matter and How It Is Best Treated.

The blood is more important than any of the organs. It is thru the blood that the whole human body is directly or indirectly nourished. The blood gets its nourishment from the intestines. The intestines also contain waste products—undigested foods, acids, gases and refuse, which sometimes get in the blood.

When waste products get in the blood, nature will strive to cast them out. If your resistance is strong enough, nature will probably succeed. But if you are "below par," weak, run-down, and nervous, nature will begin to show signs of distress.

As a result, you will have that feeling of fatigue. You will lack the energy you need for the day's duties and pleasure. Minor ailments will begin to affect you—pimples, blackheads, and boils.

If the waste products are not gotten out of the blood at this point, it is possible a more serious skin eruption or disease will begin to show itself.

It is not infrequent for waste products to settle in the muscles and joints and cause rheumatism.

Listen to nature's warning. Your blood is your fountain source of energy—therefore keep your blood rich and pure.

For over 50 years, thousands and thousands of men and women have relied on S. S. S. to clear their blood of waste products. S. S. S. will improve the quality of your blood by relieving you of the waste products which cause impoverished blood and its allied troubles—skin disorders, rheumatism and a lowered vitality.

Get S. S. S. at your druggist. Beware of substitutes. Write Chief Medical Director, Swift Specific Co., D-720 S. S. S. Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga. for special medical advice (without charge). He is helping people every day to regain their health and strength. Ask him to send you his illustrated booklet, "Facts About the Blood"—free. S. S. S. is sold by all drug stores.

Four Men Held in Jennings County Jail at Vernon, Ind.

(By United Press)

Seymour, Ind., Sept. 20—Four men were held at the Jennings county jail in Vernon today, charged with attempting to wreck a B. & O. train near North Vernon. Police say the men placed spikes and scrap iron in the path of a fast St. Louis—New York freight.

The men held are Walter and Earl Kruse, 19 and 22 years old, of Newport, Ky., Edward Harvat, 21, Columbus, O., and George Yack, 25, Omaha, Neb.

A track gang found the obstruction on the track in time to prevent the train from being wrecked. The four men confessed that they were attempting to slow down the train so they could board it, police said.

SHANTUNG ISSUE MAY BE FORCED

Developments Standing Out in Shantung Question May Compel Showdown Soon

TWO COUNTRIES DISAGREE

Return by Japan to China of Province Causes Them to Bring Out Differences

By A. L. BRADFORD
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Sept. 20.—The issue of the return by Japan of Shantung to China may soon be forced to a showdown, it was indicated today.

These developments stood out in the Shantung question:

1.—China, it is indicated, authoritatively, will refuse to accept the recent Japanese proposals for returning Shantung.

2.—Japan, it is believed, may assume an attitude that she is justified in retaining control of Shantung if China rejects the Japanese proposals.

China is believed anxious to bring the question up in the Washington conference on limitation of armament and Pacific and Far Eastern problems. Japan is more anxious that it be kept out.

Secretary of State Hughes, it is known, would be gratified if there could be a fair and just settlement of the Shantung problem before the conference, but he is also known to feel that all problems that are potential sources of international friction may well be taken up by the conference.

If China refuses the Japanese proposals, Japan may notify the United States that it cannot consent to a discussion of the matter in the conference.

Chinese Minister Sze and Japanese Ambassador Shidehara here have kept the state department informed on the attitude of their respective governments on the question ever since the Japanese proposals were made. While Hughes is believed to be maintaining a neutral attitude, he may informally use his good offices in conversations with these two envoys to bring the two countries to an agreement.

REWARD TO BE USED TO SAVE INVALID'S LIFE

Indianapolis Motorman Teeters Receives $100 For Saving Life of Everett Gray, 21 Months Old

WIFE INVALID FOR MONTHS

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 20.—The reward for the rescue of 21 months old Everett Gray will be used to save an invalid woman's life.

"It will all go to help take care of my wife," Thomas L. Teeters, Indianapolis motorman who jumped through his car window to save Baby Everett from death under the wheels, said when asked how he would spend the $100 award given him by the street car company.

Teeters was bruised and narrowly escaped serious injury when he rolled off the tracks with the baby in his arms. He has not been able to return to work. His wife, who has been an invalid for months, will enjoy better care because of the money given him for his act.

The motorman's name has been sent to the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission. A medal and honorary membership were voted him by the Lions Club of this city.

The child, who has escaped from home to play in the street, was not hurt.

DISTRICT MEETING HELD AT SPICELAND

Knights of Pythias From Several Counties at Session Under Auspices of Henry County Lodges

BIG DINNER SERVED AT NOON

Series of Addresses Given in Which Fraternal Order is Praised For its Good Work

(Special to the Daily Republican.)

Spiceland, Ind., Sept. 20.—Over 1200 people attended the big K. of P. picnic at Spiceland Sunday which brought to a close a very successful year under the leadership of V. T. Davis, County deputy.

Mr. Davis as county deputy has done a great work for the K. of P. in Henry County. He has attended every county meeting and secured the hearty cooperation and support of every lodge of the order in the county. Under his capable leadership the order has grown rapidly and Henry County stands as one of the strongest and best governed of any in Indiana.

After the chickens and pumpkin pies and all sorts of good things to eat were disposed of and old acquaintances renewed and a general spirit of fellowship prevailing for some time, the crowd gathered together in a beautiful shady spot among the trees and springs of the sanitarium grounds the home of the famous Bezor water and a most interesting program was given.

Mr. Davis presided as chairman of the meeting which was opened with prayer by Mr. J. J. Rutledge, and then Ralph Test gave an address of welcome to the other counties of the district represented in behalf of Henry County, and was followed by a most cordial address of welcome in behalf of Spiceland to all present by J. C. Haskett. Music was furnished by the Wilkinson Boys Band.

Following Mr. Haskett there were short addresses by Carl R. Mitchell of Martinsville, Jonec Monyham of Orleans, Robert A. Brown, of Indianapolis, L. B. Elmore of Monticello and Perry Newby of Knights-town, after which a most interesting and foreable address was given by Mrs. Daisy Douglas Barr of Newcastles. Mrs. Barr spoke of the good work of the order and said if all people would take the responsibility for the betterment of the nation that the K. of P. take, that crime and disorder would vanish from our country.

The meeting was attended by members of every lodge in the county as well as from a number of adjoining counties. Henry county has done her part and gained a place in the front ranks of the state.

At the beginning of the Pythian year Tom Neal the Grand Chancellor gave as his slogan 75,000 members for Indiana and which has been passed by nearly 2,000 which is remarkable considering general conditions.

Everybody left feeling the meeting was a success.
